

WINTER UPDATE

2019

SAVE THE DATE - ECSPPO Concert

August 4, 2019, Sunday 3pm
Livingston High School

Tentative date for first rehearsal:
Tuesday, June 18th

Thank you for your feedback!

Thank you all for completing last fall's orchestra survey. We had a great response and were able to use the data and candid comments to help us evaluate and improve our orchestra. Based on the results we have hired Nate White to conduct the 2019 season, and he has accepted.

We are currently working with Nate on choosing the pieces for the next concert and incorporating many of your helpful suggestions to improve the rehearsals and performance. We will update you in the spring with the full rehearsal dates and concert program. However, we have chosen Dvorak's Symphony No. 6 in D major as part of the program.

ECSPPO Board Members

A hearty thanks to the board members who retired in 2018. These members have either helped found and/or kept the orchestra running over the years. We appreciate the time and effort they have put into supporting and growing the orchestra and thank them for their dedication.
